

HANDS-ON-TRAINING: VIGILANCE IN THE SOUTH AFRICAN ENVIRONMENT.

The dynamic pharmaceutical industry sees a rapid turnover in staff members and the day-to-day tasks require a multitude of fields of expertise. This course will provide real and hands-on focused training and mentorship for newer regulatory personnel. The goal of the training is to empower the junior staff member and give him/her confidence in the task he/she was trained on.

Date: Thursday 11 July 2019

Venue: Venue: Glenhove Events Hub, 52 Glenhove Rd, Melrose

Time: 09:00 – 16:00

Cost: Members R2900.00, Non-Members R3400

Who should attend:

- Newly appointed responsible pharmacists
- Newly appointed vigilance officers/ pharmacists

Presenter and facilitator:

Leneri du Toit and Esthi Beukes

Topics:

1. Introduction to vigilance

- What is vigilance and why is it needed?

2. Vigilance requirements in South Africa

- What information should a local company provide to the regulatory authority to comply with local requirements.
- Vigilance requirements for CAMS and medical devices.
- Compliance with your principal's requirements.
- How should the submission be made to the SAHPRA.
- Representative training

3. Reporting of ADR's experienced during clinical trials and Section 21 use

- When to report.
- How to report.
- What to report.
- Who to report to.

4. Preparing for a vigilance audit.

5. Trouble shooting and questions

- Sharing of experiences between delegates.